CANTON SPENDS ANXIOUS MORNING

HUNAN AND KWEICHOW AS TRAINING CENTRES

Shanghai, To-day.

Chinese leaders have now arrived at definite decisions regarding military and economic resources of the nation in order to continue resistance.

It has been decided to convert Hunan and Kweichow Provinces virtually into military training camps and to promulgate conscription measures instead of the central recruiting system now in force.

General Pai Tsun-chi, Deputy Chief of Staff, and a noted Kwangsi leader, is to be appointed president of the Hunan Provincial Government it is reported, while General Chang Tze-chung will assume the presidency of the Kweichow Government, both taking full charge of military forces in these provinces.

Former Minister of Industry and present head of the Kweichow Government Wu Ting-chang, will be appointed director of the recently organized commission for the development of economic conditions in south-western provinces, under the direct supervision of Marshal Chiang Kai-shek.—Trans-Ocean.

VOLUNTEERS DEMobilISE

Madrid, To-day.

Foreign volunteers in the central zone of Republican Spain, that is, throughout Republican territory outside Catalonia, have been ordered to demobilise this afternoon. It is calculated that they number 2,500.—Reuter.

It is reliably reported in Gibraltar that the first batch of Italian legionaries are being withdrawn from Spain to Naples from Cadiz and a further batch, numbering 600, are expected to leave during the week-end.—Reuter.

MILITARY CONFIRM CONCENTRATION OF TRANSPORTS

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Canton, To-day.

In spite of official denials by Government spokesmen, military quarters confirm earlier reports of a strong concentration of Japanese transports off Bias Bay yesterday.

It is also stated that transports were sighted in the vicinity of Swatow last night, and the opinion is widely held here that several simultaneous attacks are about to be launched on South China.

Kwangtung Government denials of any unusual Japanese activity in South China are ascribed by some sources to unwillingness to create panic among the population, which has long been dreading extension of military activities to Kwangtung.

Canton spent a morning full of anxiety, which has not been allayed by the official denial.

It is reported, though not confirmed, that Chinese reinforcements have been sent to the coastal areas.—Our Own Correspondent.

OFFICIAL DENIAL

Canton, To-day.

Concerning Chinese reports from Hong Kong that a number of Japanese transports have been seen off Bias Bay, the Canton authorities this morning issued an official statement to Reuter that there is no truth in the reports of Japanese concentrations.

The Chinese police authorities state that "one Japanese warship was lying off Bias Bay this morning, but at 10.30 the vessel was seen steaming out to sea."—Reuter.

JOHN STRACHEY UP AGAINST ELLIS ISLAND

New York, To-day.

John Strachey, the British left-wing publicist, was barred from entering the United States when the "Normandie" docked here yesterday.

He was ordered to appear to-day before an Ellis Island special board of inquiry.

The Commissioner for Immigration, in a statement, said that Mr. Strachey's passport visa had been revoked and cancelled by the Consul-General in London by order of the State Department, after Mr. Strachey's departure from England.

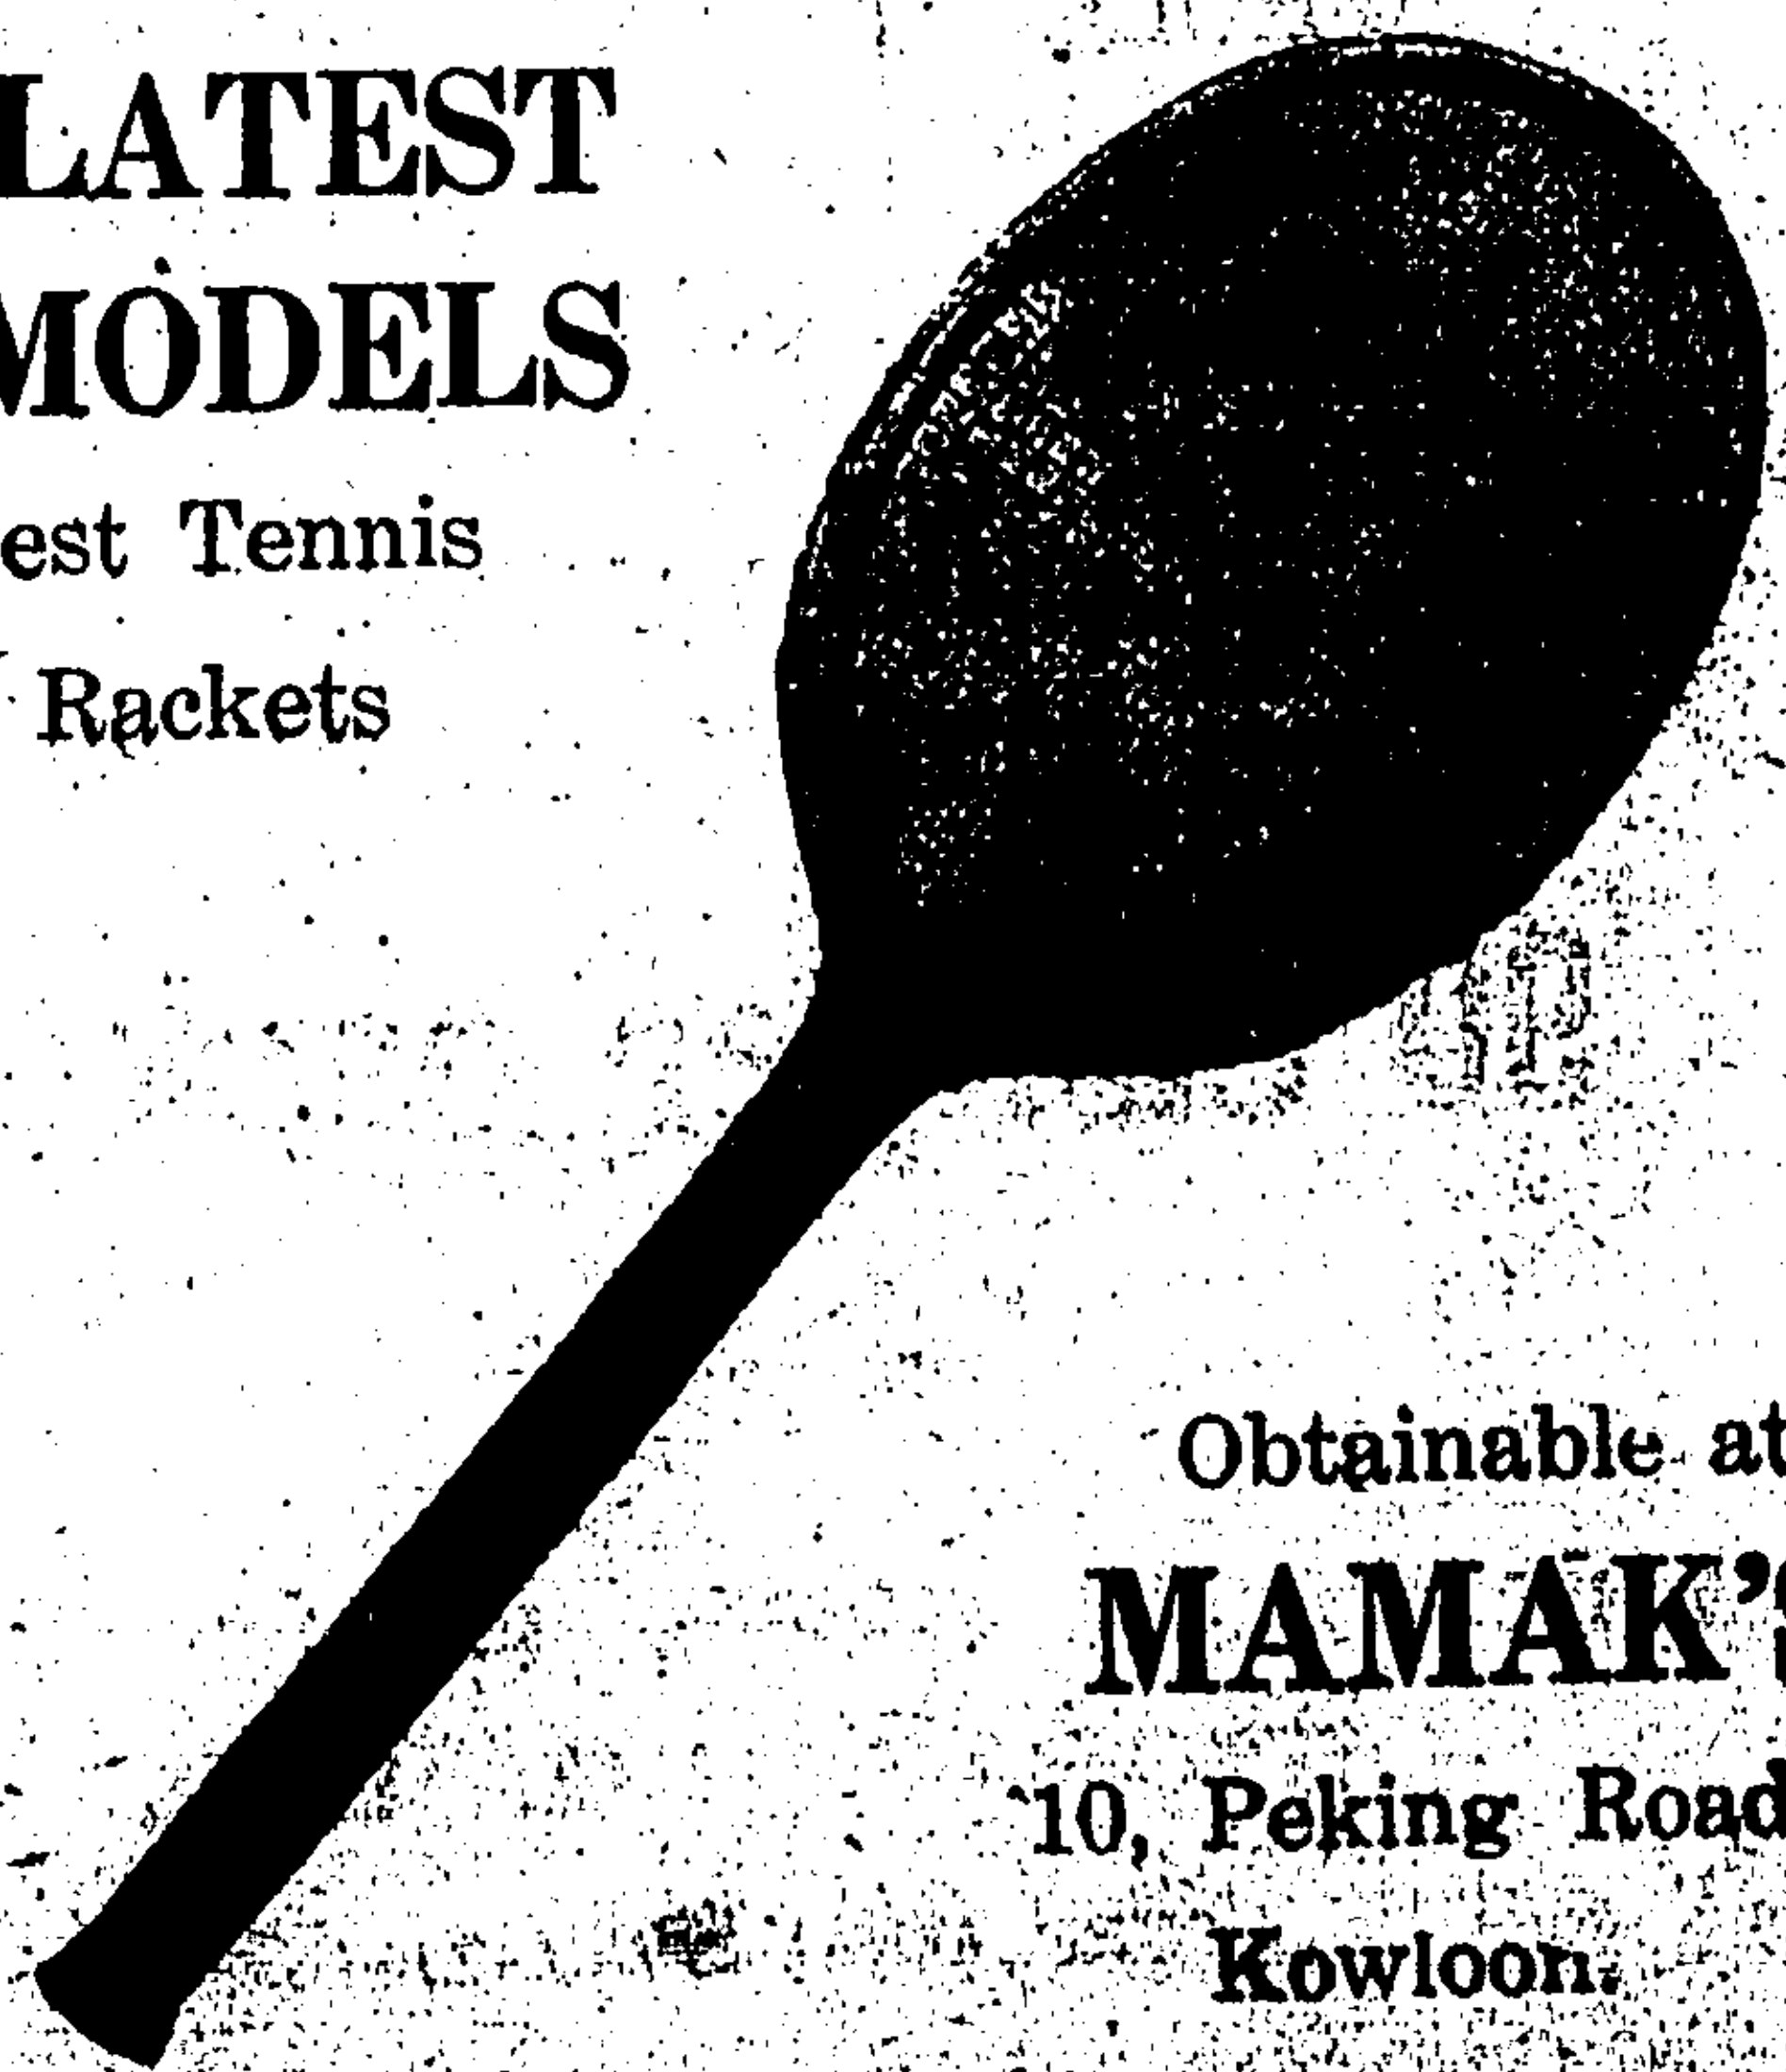

The board of inquiry will decide whether to permit Mr. Strachey, who has come for a lecture tour, to enter under a temporary permit.

Mr. Strachey, interviewed on board the "Normandie," where he is being detained for the night, revealed that the United States consul in London contacted him shortly before sailing and explained that the issue of the visa was a mistake.—Reuter.

Beauty and You

by PATRICIA LINDSAY

Pretty Mary Howard of the screen keeps her limbs and back supple by this exercise which is not as simple as it looks! Sit on the floor, lift one leg without bending the knee and grasp the ankle. Then roll backwards holding on to the ankle and try to come up again.

INDOOR EXERCISES REPLACE SUMMER OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Now that summer sports are nearly over we must give a thought to the indoor exercises we most need to keep our figures trim, or to distribute most becomingly the extra pounds we acquired during those playday months.

It is an excellent idea to start a chart of figure measurements and weights, leaving room for nine months record. Chart yourself accurately and then determine what corrective work must be done to make you a fascinating lady!

You know, this acquiring beauty or glamor or appeal depends greatly upon your will. One terribly attractive woman I know swears she can "think" herself to slimness, or "think" herself to a heavier weight if extra pounds is what she needs! And I believe she actually can.

If you are determined to lose self to a routine of exercise and a reducing diet. You just never think of straying from the course you have laid for yourself! And in no time at all you have accomplished the measurements you desire. The same thinking habit holds true for under weights who desire more glamorous proportions!

SPECIFIC MOVEMENTS ADVISED
Unless you have entered or completed the menopause, or have had a serious operation, there is no reason in the wide world why you cannot find specific exercises to build you up or reduce you in the definite spots calling for correction!

You shouldn't, however, desire to get down to 120 pounds if you have been 170 pounds! Nor should you wish to slip into a size 34 dress if you have for years been taking a 48. Such drastic changes in figure are not to be recommended and neurotic underweights should panions will much prefer it if you make it a noiseless habit.

Playing with the condiments and appointments of a table is another thing that isn't done. And crumbling your bread might amuse you, but—Madam, your manners!

The way a girl held her knife and fork and behaved at table used to be a sure reply to the question: "Is she a lady?"

But it's not like that these days. There's many a girl who thinks highly of herself, yet who lets herself down when she eats and drinks. There's many a girl who thinks that the importance of dainty meal-time behaviour is a thing of the past. She's wrong. If there's one thing that is never out of date—that thing is the charm that surrounds the well-mannered girl.

If you live alone—or are such a solitary that you never sit down to a meal table with anyone else but yourself—then stick out your elbows like this as much as you want.

But rubbing elbows with your mealtime neighbour is a painful and annoying habit for your neighbour—and bad manners anyway.

It may help you to carve your way through the first course—but it won't help you to carve your way into other people's good books.

Elbows out means that you're an ungainly, unpleasant and better avoided mealtime companion.

Elbows in is a habit easy to acquire if you practise, and means that you're a person who knows that these so-called little things matter.

Drinking your soup out of the side of the spoon is really much easier than trying to pour it into your mouth from the point of the spoon. . . . And your table com-

We know that when you have a cold, you have to use your handkerchief constantly—even at mealtimes. But that does not mean that you have to use it like this. Turn aside from the table—and don't try to keep up a conversation at the same time.

The table is there not for you to lean on—the chair should be all the support you need—but to sit at.

Hold your knife and fork like this—and you're wrong

THIS IS RIGHT

Do resist the temptation to make yourself really comfortable by propping your chin in your hand and leaning on one elbow. It's bad manners to put your elbows on the table for one thing—and for another, it's very bad for the elbows themselves. Too much leaning on them makes them red and rough.

And for yet another, it may feel a comfortable position, but it doesn't look it.

And don't go spreading your elbows out sideways, and getting down to the job of an after-dinner chat.

If you do, you'll lose all your grace. Your shoulders will go up into your ears and your back will hump.

not expect ever to be buxom. But all women can sensibly control measurements and weights if they have a mind to, and keep within reasonable proportions for their type, age, and build.

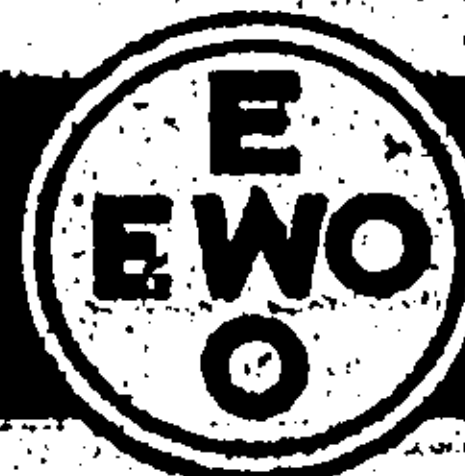

Swimming is, as you know, the best all-round exercise. I wish more women would take swimming seriously, regularly. Then there are general muscle-toning exercises which keep circulation up to par and skin youthful looking.

The most popular of the corrective movements are, naturally, those which slim your waistline and reduce your hips.

Witty Kitty

Life would be easier if it wasn't always giving the participants in it the run-around.

A fine of $5 was imposed on Dr. Konrad Hsu, when his representative pleaded guilty when summoned for leaving his car unattended in Ice House Street, on September 23.

A Chinese named Lo Yuk-ling, residing at No. 122, Caine Road, was summoned for causing an obstruction outside the pathway of the same address.

Mr. J. Hall was present on behalf of defendant, and said that defendant went home for tiffin, leaving his motor car No. 4356 outside the path, which belonged to his father.

The case was adjourned to October 18.

DAMAGED GLASS IN BUS

Before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning, Apolin Airio Antonia D'Almeida, aged 46, of the Yau-mati Disinfecting Hulk Shelter, was charged with unlawfully and maliciously damaging one pane of glass in bus No. 653, to the extent of $4.50, and with assaulting the driver and the conductor.

It was stated that at 11.45 a.m. yesterday, defendant used his stick to wave the bus to stop at a station in Waterloo Road, near the Pui Chin Girls' School, and that he broke the glass. Both the driver and conductor alighted, a quarrel ensued and defendant assaulted them.

Defendant was bound over in bond of $10 for one year and ordered to pay $4.50 to the Kowloon Motor Bus Company on the first count and fined $10 on the second.

POSSESSION OF IRON SCRAPER

Before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy this morning, a Chinese named Kwok Kam-sui, was charged with being in possession of an iron scraper, fit for an unlawful purpose.

Inspector Darkin, prosecuting, said that at about 8 p.m. yesterday, defendant was arrested on information by a Chinese detective, at No. 13, Sai Wan Ho Street, where defendant was lying in bed, and found to be in possession of the iron scraper.

Defendant was sentenced to three months' hard labour and recommended for banishment.

Another man named Leung Kun, was arrested at the same spot, with a revolver, and was remanded one week.

Sgt. Riley, residing at G. Block, Kennedy Road, reported that between midnight and 7 a.m. on Sunday, some person entered his residence, and stole money and jewellery, to the value of $80.50.

GONCALVES-DE
MELLO WEDDING IN MACAO

Macao, To-day.

A wedding of considerable interest to this colony and the Portuguese community in Hong-kong was solemnized at the Church of St. Lawrence to-day, when Miss Olga Maria de Mello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. de Mello, was united in wedlock to Mr. Joao Baptista Goncalves, son of the late Mr. V. Goncalves and Mrs. Goncalves. The parents of the bride are extremely well-esteemed in Macao, and the groom is a keen sports enthusiast of Hong Kong having played for Hong Kong in interport hockey matches during the last two years.

The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the nuptial ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. M. Variz.

The bride entered the church on her father's arm. She wore an exquisite gown of white satin styled according to the Duchess of Mantua and designed by Mr. A. Borges. Her veil fell gracefully from her small satin cap outlined with orange-blossom, and trailed over her long train of satin. In her hand she carried a bouquet of orange-blossoms. Misses Olivia Lobo, Norma Goncalves, and Leticia Mello, followed as her bridesmaids. They were attractively gowned in dresses of the Imperial style, the material being of sky-blue taffeta lined with navy chiffon velvet and they held bouquets of Queen Victoria roses. The page was little Albert Mello, Jr., the nephew of the bride, clad in a white satin jacket and black velvetens. The bride's mother wore black lace on satin with matching hat. Mrs. Goncalves was dressed similarly.

GOVERNOR A GUEST

A well-attended reception followed in the Macao Club. Among the guests were H.E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Tamagnini Barbosa, Lt. P. da Costa, A.D.C., Com. Vieira, Dr. Brito Chaves, Mr. and Mme. Miranda, Mr. and Mrs. Luiz Nolasco, Mr. and Mrs. McComb, Comm. Campos, Mr. Senna, and many other prominent personages in the local community and Hong Kong residents.

Mr. Pedro Lobo, who was the bridegroom's best man, expressed his hearty congratulation in an impressive speech. Following the reply by the bride's father, H.E. the Governor spoke suitably of the debt of the Colony owed to Mr. and Mrs. Mello. He wished the newly-weds the happiest future.

Mr. and Mrs. Goncalves left for Hong Kong at 2 p.m. Their honeymoon will be passed in the neighbour colony. — Our Own Correspondent.

DUMPING A DEAD BODY

For dumping a dead body in a back lane at Nam Chang Street on Saturday last, So Yau, aged 36, was fined $80 or six weeks' hard labour by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

Defendant said that the body was his own child who died of typhoid fever several days ago. Mr. Barnett said that it was a very serious offence and he would impose the same fine in future cases.

POLITICAL MURDER: BULGARIAN ARMY CHIEF DEAD

Sofia, To-day.

Major-General Peeff, Chief of Staff of the Bulgarian Army, was shot dead yesterday afternoon when on the way to the War Office.

The assassin, who was armed with a revolver, is variously reported as a civilian and an officer of the army reserve.

He afterwards shot himself. Major-General Peeff's A.D.C. was wounded.

Eye-witnesses of the assassination state that a man with a revolver in each hand, fired at the officers at close range.

The murderer is stated to be a man named Vassoff, who had served a term of imprisonment and had been released on a pardon from the King.

KING RETURNING

Shortly after the crime it was learned that King Boris, who has been staying at the Summer Palace at Varna, was proceeding to the capital by special train.

Vassoff is described as a former officer, but the military authorities decline to give information about him.

The streets leading to the scene of the crime were cordoned off, and the press so far has not been permitted to report the affair.

Major-General Peeff was one of the most brilliant officers in the Bulgarian Army, and was highly popular.—Reuter.

RESERVE OFFICER

Sofia, To-day.

Further details are now known regarding the assassination of General Peeff, Chief of the Bulgarian General Staff, which occurred at 2 p.m. yesterday as, accompanied by his adjutant, Colonel Stojanoff, he was about to enter the office of the War Ministry in Sofia.

The assailant, who was dressed in civilian clothes and shot himself after having committed the outrage, has been identified as Stojan Josifaff, a major of the Reserve Army, who was released from jail three months ago.

It appears that just before General Peeff had reached the War Ministry, the assassin rushed forward and fired about fifteen shots from two revolvers. General Peeff was struck by two bullets and killed on the spot, while Colonel Stojanoff was dangerously wounded. He was conveyed immediately to hospital.

WON'T TALK

The assassin, although severely wounded, has retained consciousness but refuses to explain the motive which led him to commit this outrage which has caused a tremendous stir in the Bulgarian capital.

Police have cordoned off the entire suburb of the town and are now engaged in hunting down persons believed to have had a hand in the crime.

General Peeff was appointed chief of the Bulgarian General Staff only a few months ago.—Trans-Ocean.

Belgrade, To-day.

Political motive for the assassination of General Peeff has now been definitely established, it appears.

The assassin is a Macedonian and hails from Stanimaka, which is also the birthplace of General Peeff.

It is generally presumed that Josifaff, the murderer, belongs to a group of extreme Macedonians who have been combating the policy of the Bulgarian Government of bringing about an understanding between Bulgaria and Yugo-Slavia.—Trans-Ocean.

CHOOSING SUCCESSOR TO BENES

Prague, To-day.

The question of election of a successor to President Edouard Benes, who resigned recently, was discussed at a meeting of the permanent ways and means committee of the Czecho-Slovak Parliament yesterday.

Although the Constitution stipulates that an election must take place within a fortnight, it is understood that the committee will decide on postponement.

Dr. Benes is still in Czecho-Slovakia, though it is understood he has promised to leave the country.—Reuter.

UP-TO-DATE ARMY: COMPLETE REORGANISATION OF TERRITORIALS

London, To-day.

Complete reorganisation of the Territorial Army was announced by the Secretary for War, Mr. Leslie Hore-Belisha, yesterday.

In Mr. Hore-Belisha's words, the "changes will produce an up-to-date army capable of reinforcing the regulars by units or formations."

The Territorials will have both light and heavy machine-gun battalions, while the artillery will have eight guns instead of four in batteries.

New units to be provided include and one mobile division will be eight tank regiments and anti-tank created.

Horse regiments will be retained as reserve cavalry now that so many of the regular cavalry units have been mechanised.

LESSONS OF MOBILISATION

Referring to the calling-up of Territorial officers and men, Mr. Hore-Belisha said that when men not by profession military are assembled with such suddenness, and when arrangements previously untried are with rapidity put into effect, it would be anticipated that defects in the machinery would be revealed.

In the matter of personnel, few defects were disclosed. In the matter of equipment, as the country knows, much remains to be done.

It must be realised that a programme of ambitious proportions is progressive and not instantaneous in fulfilment.

To-day's anti-aircraft units were double those of a year ago. By next year they will be almost doubled again.

REGULAR FOOTING

Announcing the Territorial changes, the Minister said: "This Army must, with modifications appropriate to its peculiar character, be given the same content and be on the same footing as the Regular Army."

"Nominally organised in divisions, it is deficient in many up-to-date units which the regular army has. These shortcomings must be made good."

Mr. Hore-Belisha declared he would announce in a few days a new scheme for the wider training of Territorial Army officers, in peace in order to qualify them for Staff appointments in the event of war.—Reuter.

MOTORCYCLE BATTALIONS

London, To-day.
Mr. Hore-Belisha's speech was broadcast last night, and concerned the latest rearmament measures taken in the British Army.

The Territorial Army is to be given new units: light cavalry and tank brigades, anti-tank regiments, light anti-aircraft regiments, and tank battalions.

Moreover, for the first time motorcycle battalions, which the British Army has not hitherto possessed, are to be created.

Infantry brigades of the Territorial Army will, like the Regular Army, also consist of three battalions instead of four. By these means nine complete regular divisions, three motorised divisions

50,000 MOBILISED

According to the Haldane Plan of 1914, there were 14 Territorial Divisions. Now there are to be 18 in all, of which five will be anti-aircraft divisions.

Mr. Hore-Belisha also reported in his broadcast that during the mobilisation measures more than 50,000 officers and men of the Territorial Army had been called in, and were ready for service within a very few hours.

The War Minister expressed his special thanks to these volunteers and announced that the permanent anti-aircraft service would this year consist of 46,000 and next year of 69,000 men.—Trans-Ocean.

COST OF MOBILISATION

Paris, To-day.

The aggregate sum spent by the European peoples in the last few weeks in preparing for mobilisation must have been about 50 milliards of French francs, states an estimate published by the "Paris Soir."

Moreover, note circulation in six leading European countries increased by 53 milliards of French francs, and in Europe as a whole by about 60 milliards of francs.—Trans-Ocean.

BRITISH LEGION MEMBERS LEAVE

London, To-day.

A delegation of three members of the British Legion, charged with the task of making necessary preparations for the arrival of 1,250 legionaries in areas to be plebiscited, left here by air for Prague yesterday morning.

The delegation left although, according to latest information available, it is not certain whether plebiscites will take place and therefore whether the British legionaries will be required.

The delegation is headed by Colonel Sir Alfred Mowatt, who is assisted by the secretary of the British Legion, Mr. Griffin, and by Mr. Byford, representing the British War Office.—Trans-Ocean.

Cpt. Trevor, of the R.A. Stanley, reported the loss of an Oyster wrist watch, valued at £40, about 6 a.m. on Sunday.

CHINESE RESISTANCE WILL LAST MUCH LONGER

JAPANESE AS USUAL TOO OPTIMISTIC

Hankow, To-day.

In spite of confident Japanese expectations that their troops will be in Hankow by November 3, foreign military observers believe that Chinese resistance will last much longer.

Although the Japanese advance shows no signs of slackening over a wide front, the magnificent Chinese victory in the Tehan sector will, it is felt, soon bear results.

The entire population of the Wuhan cities went mad with joy yesterday over the Chinese victory, described as the greatest since Taierchwang.

The news spread like wildfire and fire-crackers were set off in the streets both to celebrate the victory as well as the Double Tenth Festival, China's Independence Day.

Throughout the day newspaper offices, news agencies and military organ received continuous telephone calls asking for either confirmation or further details of the victory. The National Military Council issued several communiques to give out more information.

MYTH BROKEN

Chinese observers considered the victory as a good omen on the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of the Chinese Republic. Not a few believed that it marked a turning point in the current war situation. It was pointed out that the morale of the Chinese troops would have been greatly heightened by this signal success and more stiff resistance would be put up against the Japanese drive on the Wuhan area.

With the myth of the invincibility of the Japanese Army once more broken the Chinese forces are expected to fight with greater confidence than ever before. — Central News.

FURTHER SUCCESSES

Hankow, To-day.

The Peiping-Hankow Railway to the south of Sinyang has now been cleared of Japanese troops, declared the Chinese military spokesman yesterday afternoon at the press conference.

He added that the Japanese troops which had occupied Liuling station retreated towards the northeast following repeated Chinese assaults.

One body of Japanese troops is said to have crossed the railway and is at present surrounded at Laoliushan, west of the Railway.

The spokesman also declared that since the railway tracks have been badly damaged in the vicinity of Liuling, on the Peiping-Hankow Railway, northbound trains could not yet reach Sinyang but the through service is expected to resume shortly, after repairs have been completed. — Reuter.

KICHUN DENIAL

Hankow, To-day.

Japanese claim to occupation of Kichun, on the north bank of the Yangtse, was categorically denied by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters yesterday.

The denial states that fighting is still going on in the town which was demolished by Japanese bombings.

It is also denied that the Japanese occupied Yunghsin, stating "The Japanese not only did not capture Yunghsin but they were not even anywhere near the town." — Reuter.

TWO REGIMENTS

Hankow, To-day.

Further details regarding the Chinese sweeping victory west of Tehan were contained in a communique issued late last night by the National Military Council.

According to the communique, the Japanese main force which engaged the Chinese there comprised two regiments of the 106th Division and the 101st Division. They attempted to break through the Chinese line at Wangchialing, Changling and Changkushan, lying to the west of Tehan, and envelop Tehan.

The Japanese offensive was launched on October 4. On October 6 the Japanese succeeded in breaking through the Chinese positions at Wangchialing and Changkushan, and the Chinese retired a little distance back.

CORDON TIGHTENED

The Chinese started a counter-attack on October 7. Changkushan, Changling and the hills in the neighbourhood changed hands several times on October 7 and 8.

On the morning of October 9 the Chinese right and left wings succeeded in surrounding the Japanese, and gradually tightened the cordon around them. The sanguinary battle lasted until early yesterday morning when the Japanese were practically totally annihilated. Only about 200 men slipped through the Chinese cordon and fled in a northerly direction.

The battlefield was actually strewn with Japanese dead and wounded, and arms and ammunition abandoned. — Central News.

WEATHER FORECAST

The Royal Observatory reports that feeble anticyclonic areas are situated over North China and to the east of the Bonins.

The depression or typhoon is situated about 350 miles east of North Luzon, moving northwest.

Local forecast: — E. winds, moderate, fair generally.

BRITONS LEAVE FOR PRAGUE

London, To-day.

The Lord Mayor of London and British Legion officials proceeded to Czechoslovakia yesterday. They travelled from Croydon by air and changed to another machine at Brussels.

The Lord Mayor is going to Prague in connexion with relief work, while the Legion officials are making arrangements for policing the plebiscite areas. — Reuter.

QUIET DOUBLE TENTH IN SHANGHAI

Hankow, To-day.

Nothing untoward happened in the International Settlement and the French Concession amidst the celebration of the Double Tenth, China's Independence Day, yesterday, according to a Shanghai message.

Handbills of a patriotic nature were distributed and posters put up by Chinese in the International Settlement, but no disturbance was created.

Machine-gun and rifle fire was heard from Nantao on the night of Oct. 9 and early yesterday morning. The cause of the firing was unknown. — Central News.

A Chinese named Liu Ting-fong, has reported that at about 2.30 p.m. yesterday, while he was walking along Des Vaux Road Central near Morrison Street, an unknown person approached him and stole $160 in Chinese currency, and $80 in Hong Kong money.

BRITAIN'S SHANGHAI LOSSES

SHANGHAI, TO-DAY.

BRITISH ECONOMIC LOSSES IN SHANGHAI SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE SINO-JAPANESE CONFLICT AS DISTINCT FROM THOSE OF A PURELY MATERIAL CHARACTER HAVE BEEN ESTIMATED BY THE BRITISH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN SHANGHAI TO AGGREGATE BETWEEN FIVE AND 6-1/2 MILLION POUNDS STERLING.

British investments, before the outbreak of the conflict, aggregated 180 million pounds sterling.

Shanghai's share in Chinese foreign trade has declined as follows:

From January to May 1937, 61 per cent. of imports into China passed through Shanghai, while 52 per cent. of exports from China passed out by that port.

From January to May 1938, however, Shanghai's share of imports was only 23 per cent. and of exports only 23 per cent.

Ports of South China were the chief beneficiaries of these changes. — Trans-Ocean.

LINDBERGH'S IN BERLIN

Berlin, To-day.

Colonel Charles Lindbergh and his wife are expected to arrive here to-day when Col. Lindbergh will attend the Lilienthal Congress on Aeronautical Science.

A report received from Paris states that Col. Lindbergh has already left Le Bourget for Berlin but a subsequent message indicates that the Lindberghs postponed their departure for one day. — Trans-Ocean.

Duff-Cooper To Spill The Beans?

LONDON, TO-DAY.

MR. DUFF COOPER, WHO TEN DAYS AGO RESIGNED THE PORTFOLIO OF FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY IN THE CHAMBERLAIN CABINET BECAUSE OF DISAGREEMENT WITH THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT, HAS SIGNED A CONTRACT WITH LONDON'S LEADING EVENING PAPER THE "EVENING STANDARD" UNDERTAKING TO FURNISH REGULARLY FOR PUBLICATION, ARTICLES ON FOREIGN POLITICAL QUESTIONS.

The "Evening Standard" announces that to-night, Mr. Duff Cooper under the title "Who Wants War?" will publish an answer to the Fuehrer's Saarbruecken speech. Mr. Duff Cooper's articles are awaited by the general public with the keenest interest, firstly because it is expected that they will reveal further particulars of European international occurrences of the last four weeks and secondly because of what Mr. Duff Cooper has hitherto written.

£4,000 A YEAR

Two of his best-known works are his book on Earl Haig, British Commander-in-Chief in the World War and his studies on Napoleon's Foreign Minister, Talleyrand.

It is asserted in newspaper circles that the remuneration that Mr. Duff Cooper is to receive for his collaboration with the "Evening Standard" amounts to £4,000 per year.

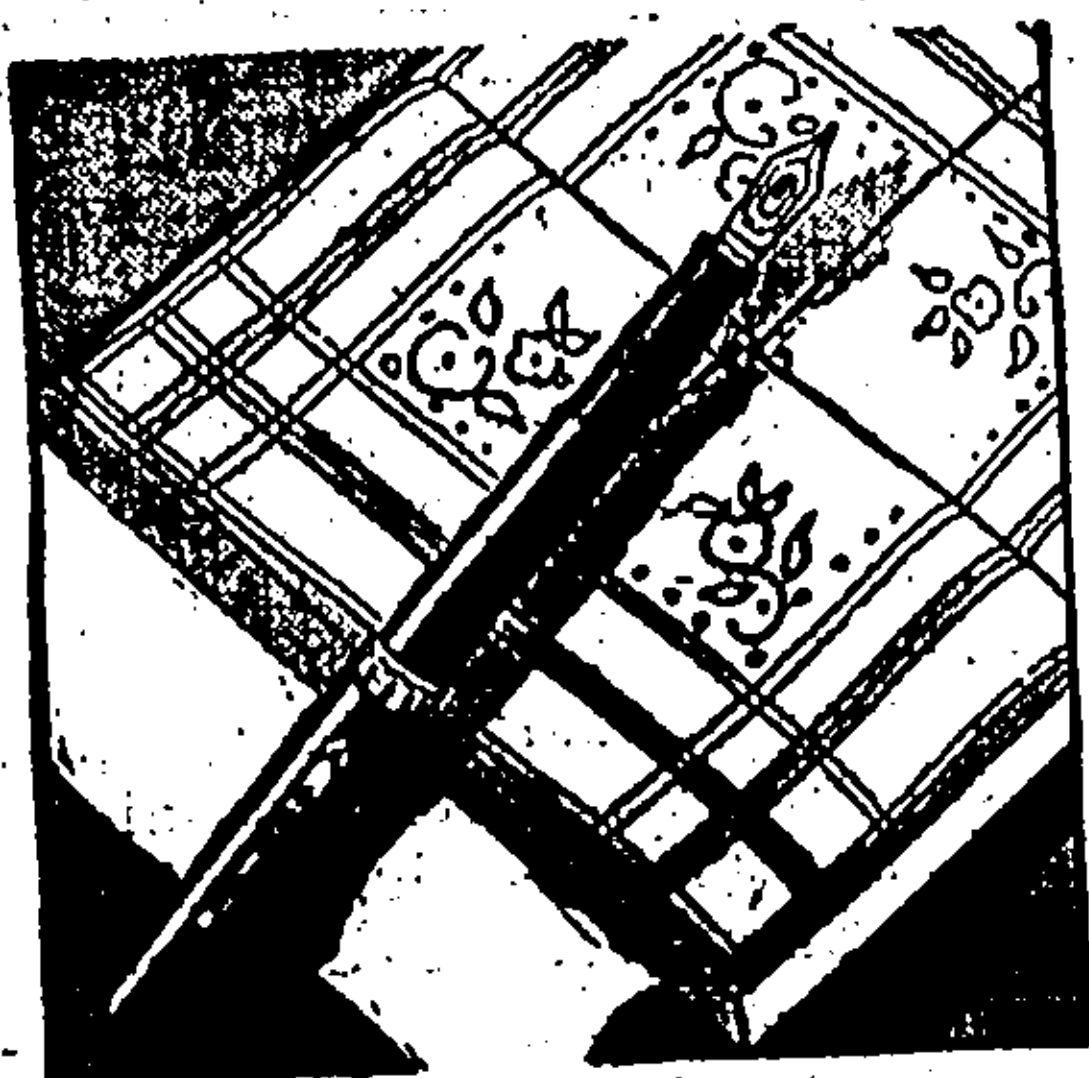

As a member of the House of Commons, Mr. Duff Cooper draws an emolument of £800 yearly. — Trans-Ocean.

A fine of $5 was imposed by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen this morning at the Kowloon Magistracy on Mr. A. G. James, of 8, Aimai Villas, Austin Avenue, when summoned for failing to show front lights whilst driving in Nathan Road at 7.15 p.m. on September 15.

Lord Cecil Urges Boycott Of Japanese Goods

LONDON, TO-DAY.
FOUR HUNDRED PEOPLE, BOTH CHINESE AND FOREIGN, SAT DOWN TO A "RICE BOWL DINNER" IN AID OF CHINESE MEDICAL RELIEF LAST NIGHT.

The party included Lord Listowel, chairman of the China Campaign Committee, Mr. Quo Tai-chi, the Chinese Ambassador, and his wife, Lord Cecil, and M. Ivan Maisky, the Soviet Ambassador, and Mme. Maisky.

There was great enthusiasm when Lord Listowel read Reuter's telegram reporting the Chinese victory on the south Yangtse front.

BULWARK OF PEACE

Lord Cecil said that the Chinese were one of the bulwarks of the peace of the world. To the best of his knowledge they had never in recent times begun an aggressive war, and they were now fighting in self-defence for their freedom and country against the most unjust and intensive military invasion ever.

He expressed profoundest sympathy for the magnificent defence and noble self-sacrifice with which the Chinese were standing up to the invaders.

The League of Nations had pronounced China in the right and Japan in the wrong, and the duty of members of the League therefore was quite clear.

TWO COURSES

Military intervention was obviously out of the question but he urged two possible courses.

Firstly, we should organise ourselves to refuse to buy any article of Japanese production, and Secondly, we should urge the Government to give financial assistance to China.

BATTLE FOR PEACE

Lord Cecil asked if it should be said of us in this country that in our joy at obtaining peace for ourselves we were forgetting those in China who were fighting so just a battle for their own peace.

He refused to believe that our country would accept so miserable a position.

Other speakers were Mr. Quo Tai-chi, Mr. Peter Fleming, the author and London "Times" correspondent, who graphically described what he had seen of war in China, and Miss Rose Tou, a Chinese girl who has been working on medical relief behind the Chinese lines and has just arrived in England.

ARAB ATTACK FAILS

Jerusalem, To-day.
Eleven Arabs were killed and three captured when a mounted gang accompanied by others on foot, attempted a daylight attack on a stockaded settlement near Beisan.
A British officer was slightly wounded.—Reuter.

EUROPEANS INVOLVED IN ROBBERY

Two Europeans are alleged to have been involved in a petty robbery at Kennedy Town last night.

In a report to the police, Leung Tung, 38, carpenter at Mount Davis Fort, stated that at 10.45 last night two Europeans robbed him of $6 in notes near Skott's Godown, Kennedy Town.

After taking the money they pushed him into a godown but he managed to free himself and followed them for some distance, but eventually lost sight of them.

The Europeans were stated to be dressed in white shirts and shorts and to have the appearance of being soldiers.

LOCAL ARCHITECT PASSES

We much regret to have to announce the death of Mr. William C. Felshaw, of Messrs. Little, Adams and Wood, who passed away at the Matilda Hospital last night.

She movingly described the heroism of the Chinese soldiers and the terrible sufferings of the Chinese refugees, and earnestly appealed for help for the Chinese.—Reuter.

OCCUPATION COMPLETE

Czechs Allege Germans Overstep Boundary

"BITTEREST DAY IN EXISTENCE"

Prague, To-day.

"To-day is the bitterest day in our existence. We are draining the last dregs of the cup of humiliation," is the Czech newspapers' comment on occupation of the final zone by the German army yesterday.

It is alleged that German troops overstepped the demarcation line at more than one point, and notably at Braunau, where two additional communes were occupied.

A protest to the German commander proved vain, as he replied that a deputation of the inhabitants had invited him to occupy the region, as it is chiefly inhabited by Sudeten Germans.

Meanwhile, the Hungarians have made maximum demands which would deprive Slovakia of all her fertile plains, leaving only barren mountainous regions for the suggested plebiscite.

FOREIGN INTEREST

However, the fact that negotiations are proceeding, suggests that the possibility of a settlement is not excluded.

Much will depend on the advice tendered by "certain great powers" which are directly interested in the question. — Reuter.

OCCUPATION COMPLETE

Berlin, To-day.

Completion of the occupation of Sudeten territories according to plan was announced by the German Supreme Command in a communique last evening.

The communique adds that the air force has taken over the properties of the Czech air force, and established anti-aircraft guns.

It says that special troops have been sent to remove destructive materials and repair damage to the railway lines, and a great part of the railway can now be resumed by the German State Railways. — Reuter.

TRIUMPHANT WELCOME

Komorn, To-day.

The Hungarian delegation which returned here yesterday to resume negotiations with Slovak leaders, was given a triumphal welcome by the inhabitants.

The conference which lasted only two hours was concluded shortly after 4 o'clock. The Slovak leaders began by declaring that in principle they were willing to accept the Hungarian demands for the return to Hungary of those territories predominantly Hungarian but considered that the line of demarcation proposed by the Hungarians went beyond the ethnic boundaries. Hence the Hungarian claims must be regarded as going too far.

The Hungarian delegation thereupon suggested the setting up of a mixed commission of experts to define the boundary line between the Slovaks and Hungarians. They stressed, however, that the despatch of a commission of this sort was no valid reason for causing any further delay in negotiations.

EXPERT COMMISSION

It was resolved that a commission of expert should meet at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

In the meantime, Slovak leaders will submit their counter-proposals relating to the demarcation of the frontier at the next meeting of the conference, scheduled for Tuesday afternoon.

It is learnt that the Hungarian delegation will continue to insist upon its demand for the application of the right of complete self-determination to the Slovak and Carpatho-Ukrainian peoples. — Trans-Ocean.

NAVY MACHINERY WORKS SMOOTHLY

LONDON, TO-DAY.

MANY OF THE NAVY RESERVISTS CALLED UP AS A PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE DURING THE EMERGENCY, ARE NOW RETURNING HOME.

Officials who were concerned in the strenuous work which the naval mobilisation involved are understood to be well pleased with the smoothness with which the machinery worked.

Except for the partial mobilisation in 1922 it has not been tested since 1914. Nearly 30,000 men were at their posts within three days of the King's proclamation.

There was a wonderfully enthusiastic response, and the officials concerned were particularly impressed by the cheerfulness of the personnel.

ANTICIPATION!

The King signed the proclamation at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, September 28, but five hours earlier, at 6 a.m., one reservist having heard a rumour of the coming proclamation, had reported at his depot.

No less than 4,000 had reported at one depot in 12 hours, and at another 4,500 were passed through the whole routine of medical and dental examinations, pay arrangements, issue of gas masks, etc.

In 24 hours the majority were drafted to their ships without any delay, some being on their way to their ships within three hours of reporting. — British Wireless.

DRAMATIC CAR CHASE IN KOWLOON CITY

A DRAMATIC CHASE OF EIGHT MILES THROUGH THE KOWLOON CITY STREETS WAS REVEALED THIS MORNING AT THE KOWLOON MAGISTRACY BY TRAFFIC SERGEANT A. BETHEL WHEN HE PROSECUTED THEOPHOLIS JOHN PERKINS, ROYAL MARINE, OF H.M.S. KENT, BEFORE MR. K. M. A. BARNETT, ON THREE CHARGES OF DRIVING WITHOUT AN APPROPRIATE LICENCE, WITHOUT THE OWNER'S PERMISSION AND WITHOUT DUE CARE AND CAUTION.

Sergeant Bethel said that Mr. J. F. Shea, the complainant, left his car at the front of his residence in Kai Tak Bund yesterday at 12.15 p.m. and two minutes later Mr. Shea saw three persons drive the car off while he was in the house.

Mr. Shea immediately rushed down and told him what had happened. He proceeded along Sai Kung Road towards Customs Pass. When near Ngau Shi Wan he saw the complainant's car, No. 741, driven by defendant coming in the opposite direction towards the Royal Air Force gate.

He drove his cycle to the middle of the road and gave a signal to stop but defendant quickly swerved to the left and carried on. He turned round and gave chase but defendant drove at a very high speed, between 40 and 50 m.p.h., towards Customs Pass, sometimes on the right and sometimes on the left of the road.

The chase continued for a distance of about eight miles. Defendant pulled up and finally stopped when the car collides with the pavement.

Defendant left the car and ran away towards the thick bushes and he gave chase on foot into the bushes. Eventually defendant was arrested and taken to the Kowloon City Station where he was later handed to the Military Authorities. The damage to the car was estimated at between $800 and $1,000.

Defendant stated that he did not remember when the car was out of his control. Defendant was fined $10, $100 and $50 on three charges respectively.

A 28-year-old Chinese woman, named Lo Sook Yin, was admitted to the Queen Mary Hospital yesterday forenoon suffering from opium poison, when she tried to commit suicide at the Empress Hotel, in Des Voeux Road Central. She died at about 1:30 p.m. on the same day.

Ma King, aged 82, unemployed, was admitted to the Queen Mary Hospital suffering from immersion. He jumped into the harbour after the ferry "Man Chun". He was rescued by a tailor.

German Version Of Anti-Catholic Riots In Vienna

VIENNA, TO-DAY.

OFFICIAL QUARTERS HERE HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT STRINGENT MEASURES WILL BE TAKEN AGAINST THOSE BANDS OF ROWDIES WHO STAGED A SERIES OF ANTI-CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATIONS HERE DURING THE WEEK-END.

CARDINAL'S SPEECHES

The incidents followed upon two addresses delivered by Cardinal Innitzer to Catholic youth. Apparently his words gave rise to counter-demonstrations on the part of a number of irresponsible young persons who stormed the Cardinal's palace and vicarage on Stephansplatz and demolished a part of the furniture.

A number of priests were menaced by the mob but fortunately none was hurt.

It is expected that Reich Commissioner, Dr. Buerckel, who was in Saarbruecken when these incidents took place, will deal with the matter upon his return to Vienna. — Trans-Ocean.

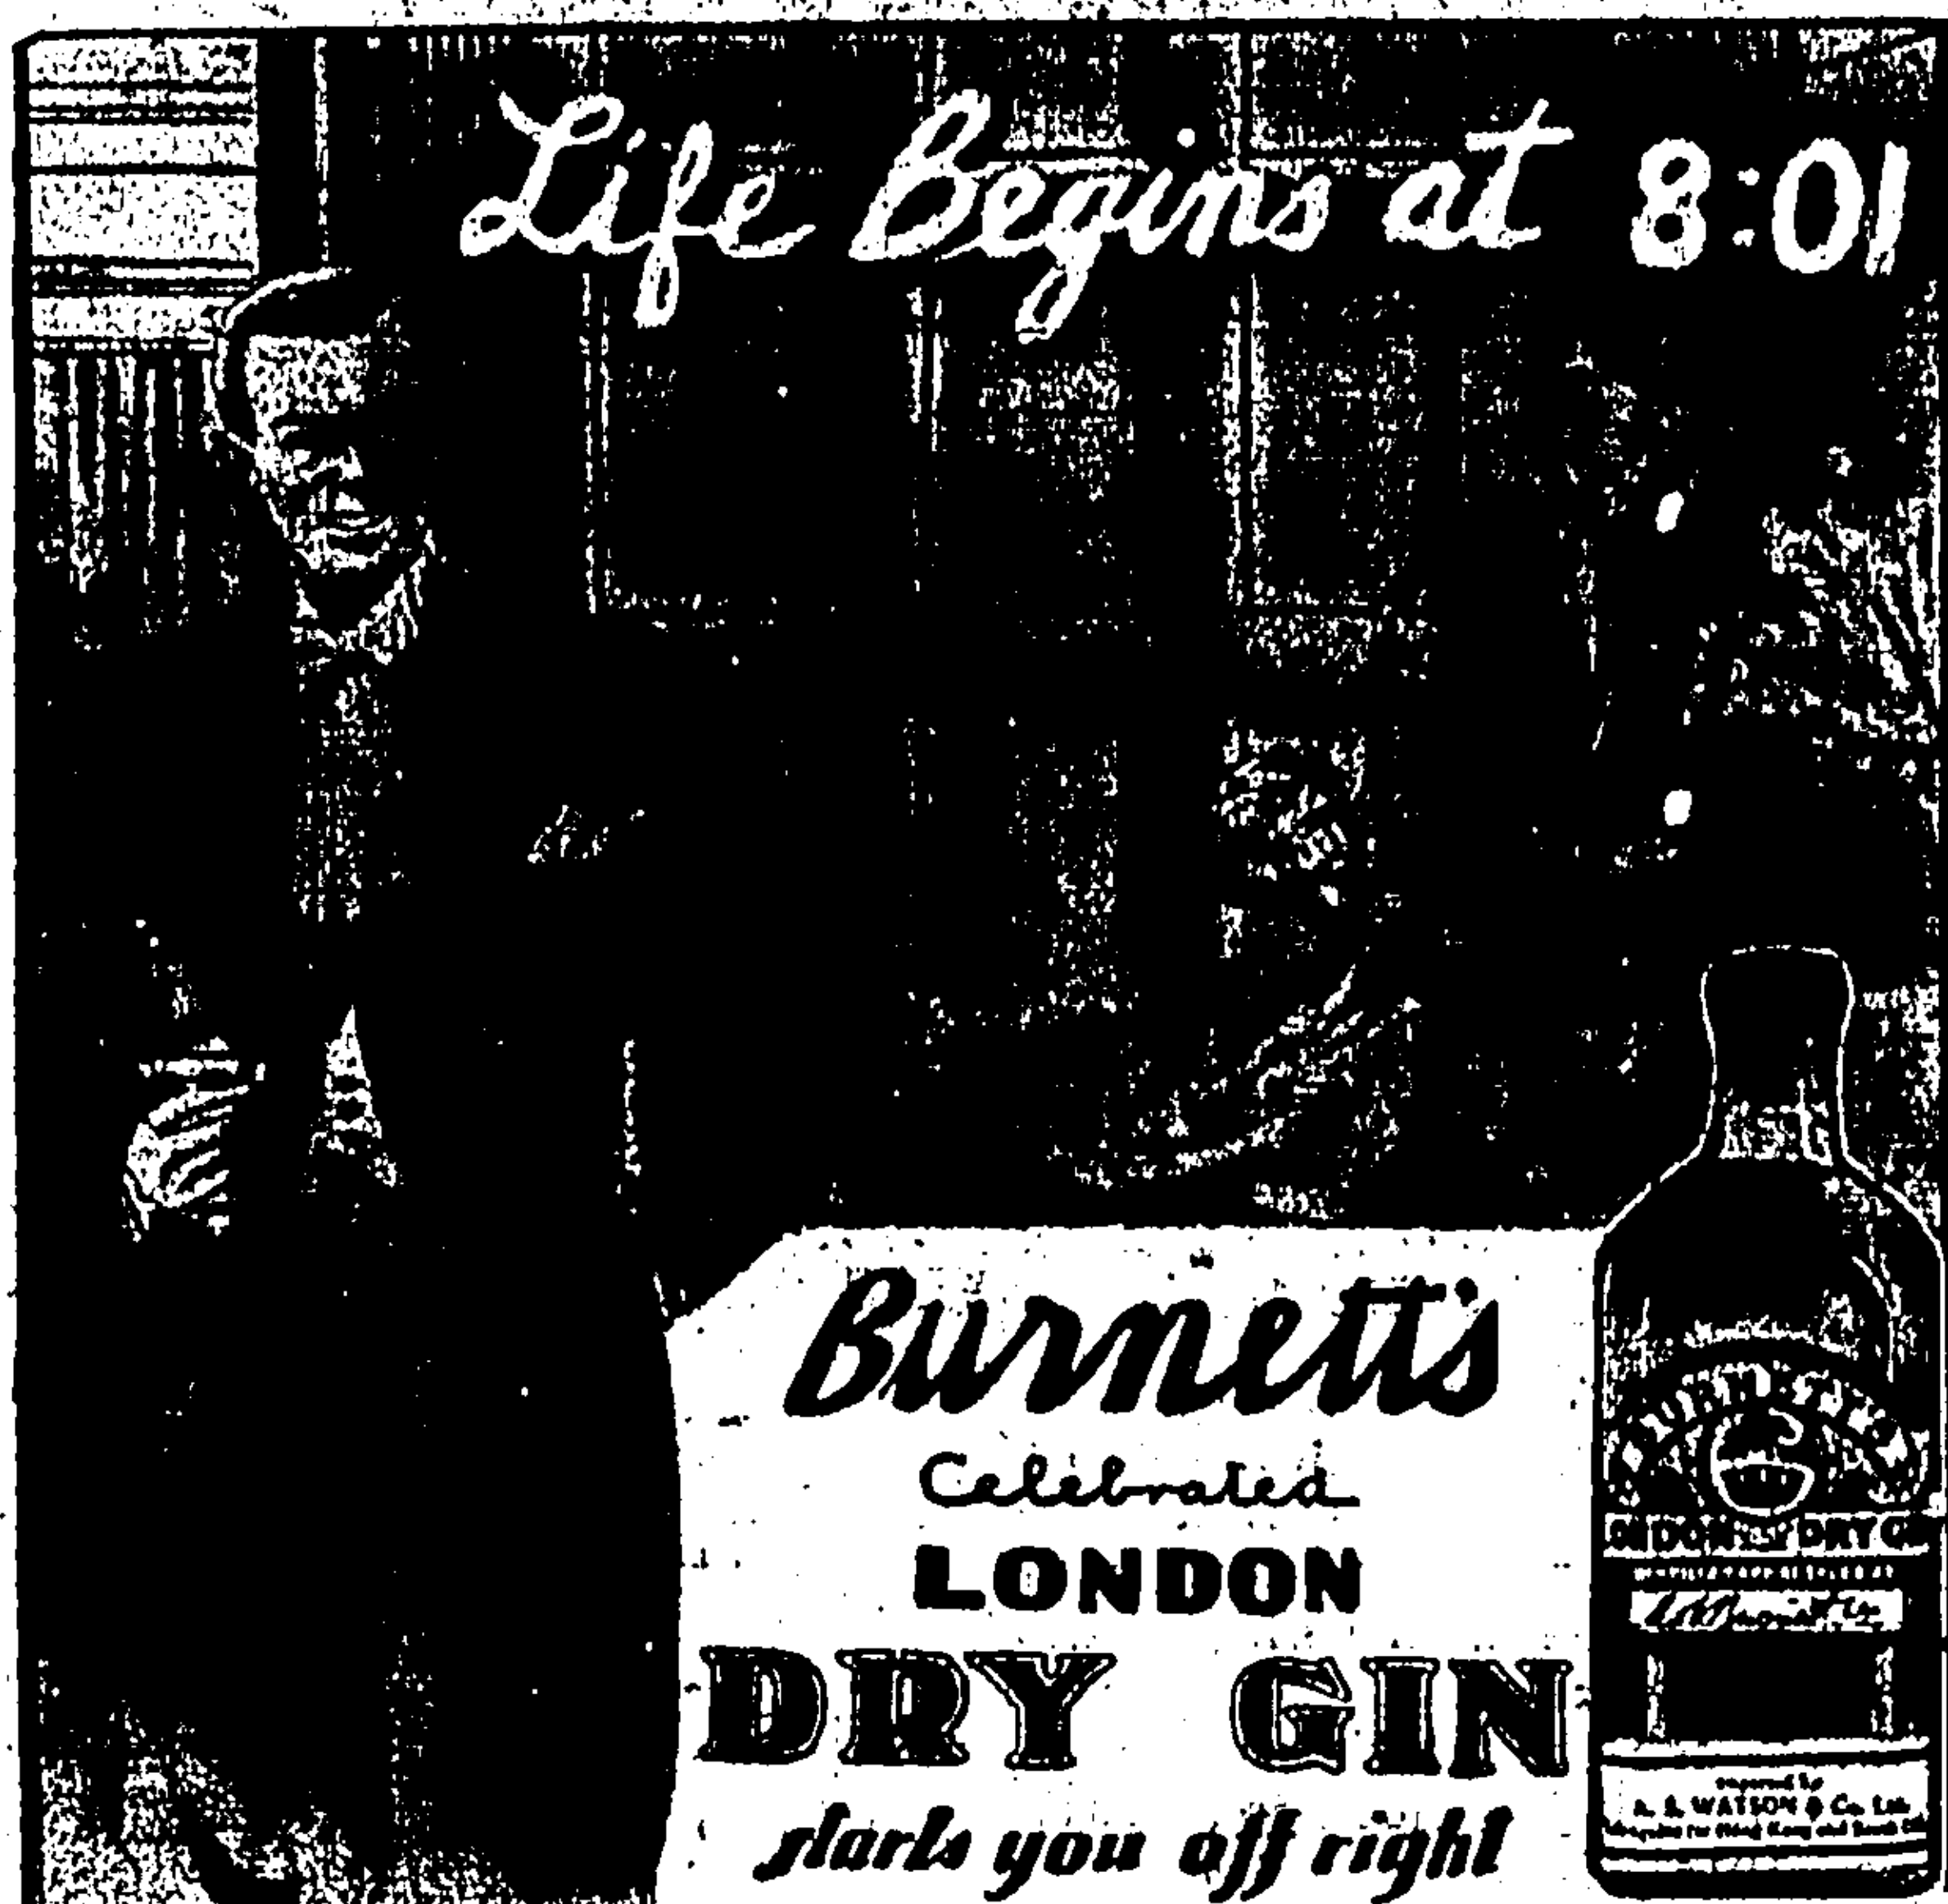

Severe punishment is to be meted out to those persons who have been identified as having taken part in the disturbances.

Although all responsible quarters here have disclaimed any connection with these persons, who are known to belong to subversive groups, this has not prevented the circulation abroad of numerous false reports.

It is not true, for instance, that Cardinal Innitzer has been placed under house arrest. He has merely been given police protection.

No Catholic church in Vienna has been closed nor have Catholic priests or nuns been ordered to leave Viennese hospitals.

M. DALADIER AND THE LEFT

There is one strong man who can always be relied on to settle French industrial and political disputes, and that is Herr Hitler. M. Daladier's recent speech provided the grounds for a duel between himself and the Left, challenges were exchanged, seconds appointed, positions taken up—but not a shot fired. The delegation of the Left-wing Parliamentary parties, in its statement, "notes with satisfaction that, after the declarations made by M. Daladier to the Radical-Socialist party and to the delegation of the Left parties, no disagreement exists with the Premier on the above two principles" (that is to say, on the need for keeping the Front Populaire majority intact and for defending the social reforms won since 1936). M. Daladier has the satisfaction of being able to say that he has not budged an inch since his broadcast, and the Left-wing parties can congratulate themselves that he has not apostatised. So the forty-hour week will be modified, and, until Parliament meets again, at any rate (which may not be before November), there will be no open breach in the parties of the Front Populaire.

It is natural to wonder whether all this fuss and anxiety might not have been avoided. With the international situation such as it is a Cabinet crisis, renewed labour unrest, or a sustained attack on the franc, or, which, at one moment, did not seem impossible, all three at once, would obviously have been disastrous. That was realised everywhere in France; but was M. Daladier's speech a reasonable excuse for the degree of excitement which did take place? Perhaps not, since, without apparently a retreat on either side, M. Daladier and the trade unions with their Parliamentary supporters are able to find themselves seeing so exactly eye to eye. But the speech was no more than an excuse. M. Daladier's Government all along has been the object of a good deal of wishful-thinking in political quarters. The Left has refused to admit that this is not the fifth Front Populaire Ministry; the Right has equally positively hailed it as the first genuinely non-Front Populaire Government this Parliament has seen. M. Daladier has been closely watched by both for some gesture that would commit him; the speech provided such a gesture, and events have amounted more or less to a long-range Parliamentary debate which has proved that M. Daladier is, after all, not committed. But nothing fundamental has been cleared up. The most serious part of M. Daladier's speech did not concern the forty-hour week, for all expected that to undergo further modifications, but emphasised the continuously precarious state of France's finances. One way to improve them is to increase production, and one way to increase production is to modify the forty-hour week; but that is only a fraction of the problem. The "Economist" estimates that in the last month the "gold rush" has lost Paris five thousand million to eight thousand million francs. M. Daladier may have done something to check the flight, but the old problem of repatriating French capital is still as acute as ever. And even Herr Hitler can hardly help to do that.

Alpinists On Wheels

Twenty cyclists from different parts of England, headed by an official of the Cyclists' Touring Club, have just commenced a tour of the Swiss and Italian Alps. Each is equipped with a bicycle weighing only thirty pounds, and having eight gears; but, in spite of this, one feels that such a passage of the Alps is not altogether unworthy to rank beside those that history acclaims as remarkable feats.

The progress of Hannibal may have been more spectacular, but the elephant is in several ways better adapted to the occasion than the bicycle; and it is doubtful if Napoleon, had he had the chance, would have preferred to send his eagles "wheeling" over the Great St. Bernard. Only in the matter of coming down will the gallant twenty have a decided advantage; and even the Assyrians who "came down like the wolf on the fold" must, by comparison, lose their claim to be scorchers.

On the whole, however it is a gesture that should be an encouragement to those who are inclined to shrink from this mode of transport, and who profess to regard the cyclist as a sort of modern compound of Ixion and Sisyphus. For, if he can conquer the Alps, it is obvious that in ordinary country the cyclist is not at all necessarily the strenuous labourer they imagine him.

ANTI-SEMITIC AGITATION IN PRAGUE

PRAGUE, TO-DAY.

THE AGRARIAN NEWS-PAPERS IN PRAGUE INSIST THAT NO LICENSES BE GRANTED TO ANY IMMIGRANTS, EITHER FROM THE SUDETEN AREAS OR AUSTRIA, TO EXERCISE PROFESSIONS IN BOHEMIA.

They also insist that the Jewish problem be solved without sentiment or delay, and hint that the Jews showed little desire to help the Czech Government when it was a question of putting their hands into their pockets to contribute to the National Defence Fund. — Reuter.

TROOPS POUR INTO PALESTINE

Haifa, To-day.

The Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire Regiment and two companies of the Hampshire Regiment arrived here in the troopship Vasma yesterday.

The Scots Greys arrived later in the troopship Phesus, with details of the Tank Corps. — Reuter.

GUARDS FOR PALESTINE

London, To-day.

It is announced that two battalions have been selected to proceed from Egypt to Palestine.

They are the Third Battalion the Coldstream Guards and the First Battalion the Northumberland Fusiliers.

One section of armoured cars and a squadron of the 11th Hussars will also be sent from Egypt. — Reuter.

HITLER SPEECH AFFECTS THE POUND

London, To-day.

A heavy European demand for American dollars characterised the foreign exchange market yesterday morning, well-informed quarters attributing the demand to Hitler's Saarbrücken speech.

Despite heavy official intervention, the U.S. dollar strengthened in terms of sterling to 4.7675 compared with 4.7681 at the close on Saturday. — Reuter.

35,000 MEN ON TRANSPORTS

Invasion of South China by the Japanese, heralded for many months, is now believed to be under way.

Seventeen Japanese transports, according to reliable reports, are now anchored off Bias Bay preparatory to landing operations.

The transports, aboard which it is believed is a force of 35,000 men, arrived off Bias Bay yesterday.

First indication of this startling development in the Sino-Japanese war was the taking of precautionary measures in Hong Kong last night.

It is reported that all Police leave has been stopped, and that a portion of the Colony police are under stand-by orders to proceed to the border of the New Territories.

Although nothing is officially admitted either in Hong Kong or Canton, reliable quarters believe an actual landing of Japanese troops in the vicinity of Hong Kong may be carried out to-day or to-morrow.

LEITH-ROSS AGAIN

London, To-day.

Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, Chief Economic adviser to the British Government, and Dr. Pospisil, a member of the Czech Economic Commission, are now informally in touch with each other.

Formal discussions between representatives of the British Government and members of the Czech delegation are not expected to begin before to-morrow. The purpose of these negotiations is the discussion of the terms of a loan of £10,000,000 made by the British Government to Czecho-Slovakia. — Trans-Ocean.

BRITISH CREDITS TO CZECHS

London, To-day.

Discussion between Treasury officials and a Czech delegation concerning British credits to Czecho-Slovakia, are expected to begin to-day.

Ten thousand Italian Legionaries who are being repatriated from Spain, are expected to arrive here on October 20. They will be met by King Victor Emmanuel. Four steamers have sailed from Naples to Cadix to transport the troops. — Reuter.

POLITICAL MOVES IN YUGO-SLAVIA

BELGRADE, TO-DAY.

PRINCE REGENT PAUL OF YUGOSLAVIA ISSUED A DECREE YESTERDAY ORDERING THE DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT AND CALLING FOR A GENERAL ELECTION TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 1.

At the same time, it is announced that big changes will be made in the Yugoslav Cabinet.

It is already learnt that the Peoples' Party has entered into an election pact with Government parties whereby the ranks Government supporters are expected to be swelled by the addition of some 200,000 voters.

Earlier in the day, Anton Maschrovitch, Mayor of Makassar in Dalmatia, had been named for the post of Minister of Public Health, in succession to Mirko Butich.

Indicative of the trend of events was also the announcement that the chairman of the former Yugoslav Peoples' Party, Svetislav Hodschera, had been given a post in Dr. Stoyadinovitch's Cabinet. Both these politicians belong to the right-wing opposition so that it appears as if the Yugoslav Premier is seeking to consolidate his Government on a broader basis. — Trans-Ocean.

DEATH OF PROMINENT H.K. RESIDENT

Dr. T. W. Pearce, a prominent figure of many years standing in the Colony, who retired from practice in 1930 after 50 years service, passed away last Sunday at Exmouth, Devonshire, after a short illness.

The late Dr. Pearce came out to the Colony in 1879 for the London Missionary Society and was an LL.D. of the Hong Kong University, later receiving the Order of the British Empire for services rendered to the Colony.

An authority on languages, he was one of the translators of the revised edition of the Chinese Bible and for some time was head of the Language School at the Chamber of Commerce. He also acted as Director of Education, served on the Board of Education and also on the Board of Examiners.

He was a relative of Mr. T. E. Pearce, the well-known Hong Kong cricketer and race-horse owner.

Withdrawal Of Italians From Spain

Hendaye, To-day.

Mr. Hemming, secretary of the non-intervention committee, together with his party, entered Nationalist Spain yesterday morning to discuss with Gen. Franco the question of a general withdrawal of volunteers.

Meanwhile, the decision has been taken to withdraw Italian volunteers with more than eighteen months of service in Spain, implementing the battalions which have been moving south in the past week.

The Nationalist press bureau at St. Jean de Luz says that the Italians will leave in Spain stores, guns and planes, and Italian technical experts will remain temporarily to hand over this material to the Spanish units replacing the Italians.

5,000 DEAD

The bureau states that Italian casualties in Spain total 5,000 dead and 9,000 wounded, sick and taken prisoner.

Their strength, which was from 45,000 to 50,000 in 1937, is now thought not to exceed 25,000. — Reuter.

CONCRETE MEASURE

London, To-day.

The diplomatic correspondent of "The Times" welcomes the forthcoming withdrawal of Italian volunteers as the first concrete measure to localise the Spanish conflict.

A Rome despatch to "The Times" confirms that the number of volunteers to be withdrawn will in no case be less than 100,000 and states that informed quarters in Rome stress the view that the withdrawal is not merely symbolic.

The despatch adds that it is generally believed in Rome that an agreement with England is imminent.

The "Daily Express" voices the hope that fighting and other technical units will be included among volunteers for withdrawal.

The "Daily Mail" reports that Sig. Mussolini is prepared to recall 17,000 volunteers. — Trans-Ocean.

COPPER MOVE WELCOMED BY MARKET

London, To-day.

The announcement of increased copper production is generally welcomed by market circles as a step in the right direction.

It is pointed out that prices recently have been moving up rather rapidly in view of the more optimistic American outlook, coupled with intensification of armament demands.

It is believed that the increased production will prevent too steep a rise in price, which is considered undesirable both from the producers' and consumers' viewpoints.

SHARE DEMAND

A rise above the $45 level might cause some consumers to switch to aluminium.

The market yesterday responded to the announcement by a 15/ advance to $45-3/16 for forward delivery, while the Stock Exchange witnessed intensification of demand for copper shares, which caused a further advance in the shares of leading producers.

Tin opened approximately $3 higher, thus continuing the recent upward movement for which the motives are similar to those actuating copper. — Reuter.

RELIEF FUND

London, To-day.

It is announced that the Lord Mayor's Fund on behalf of refugees in Czecho-Slovakia has reached $40,000. The sum was contributed in four days. — Reuter.

In response to an invitation issued by the Royal Hong Kong Golf Club, to the Hungjiao Golf Club and the Shanghai Golf Club to send a joint team to the Colony, the following team is sailing for Hong Kong to-day on board the P. and O. liner s.s. Mr. Haas, residing at the Repulse Bay Hotel, has reported that he lost part of a gold and diamond ring, to the value of $500, some where in the Jockey Club, of Saturday last.

CAPTAIN SUES SHIPPING COMPANY

Captain Owen Robyns Owen claimed $623.40, with costs, from Law Man, trading as the Kwong Lee Shipping Company, for balance of wages, and damages in lieu of three months' notice, before the Acting Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice E. H. Williams, at the Supreme Court this morning.

Plaintiff was represented by Mr. D. I. Strellet and defendant by Mr. F. H. Loseby.

The claim resulted from the dismissal of plaintiff by defendant, who had employed plaintiff as master of the s.s. Cheun Hing. The amount originally claimed was $1,095, but plaintiff reduced this to $623.40 after deducting certain sums which he had earned after his dismissal.

Plaintiff claimed that he should have been given three months' notice of dismissal, but defendant stated that plaintiff's employment with his company corresponded with the period of the charter of the vessel. The charter of the Chuen Hing terminated after a month's trial and automatically plaintiff's service terminated.

SERVICES TERMINATED

Plaintiff resigned from the post of Acting Master of the Kong Ning, and joined defendant's ship on June 2. The ship was placed on the Hong Kong-Canton run on June 25, and on July 25 defendant sent plaintiff a letter terminating his service, stating that the ship was to be put into dock and that he did not know how long it would be before the vessel would be put in service again.

On July 27, plaintiff learned that Mr. Collum, the First Officer of the Chuen Hing, was engaging a crew at the Seamen's Institute for the Cheun Hing, and immediately instructed his solicitor to write to defendant and claim damages.

The case is continuing this afternoon.

GERMAN PARTY REVIVED IN SLOVAKIA

Pressburg, To-day.

Slovak leaders have allowed the German-speaking population of Slovakia and Carpathian Russia to bring their political party into existence again after it had been suppressed by the Czechoslovak Government on September 16 last.

In future it will be known as the German Party.

This is taken as indicating that the Slovak leaders do not envisage transference of German-speaking inhabitants of Slovakia to other settlement areas.—Trans-Ocean.

CHANGES IN RUMANIA

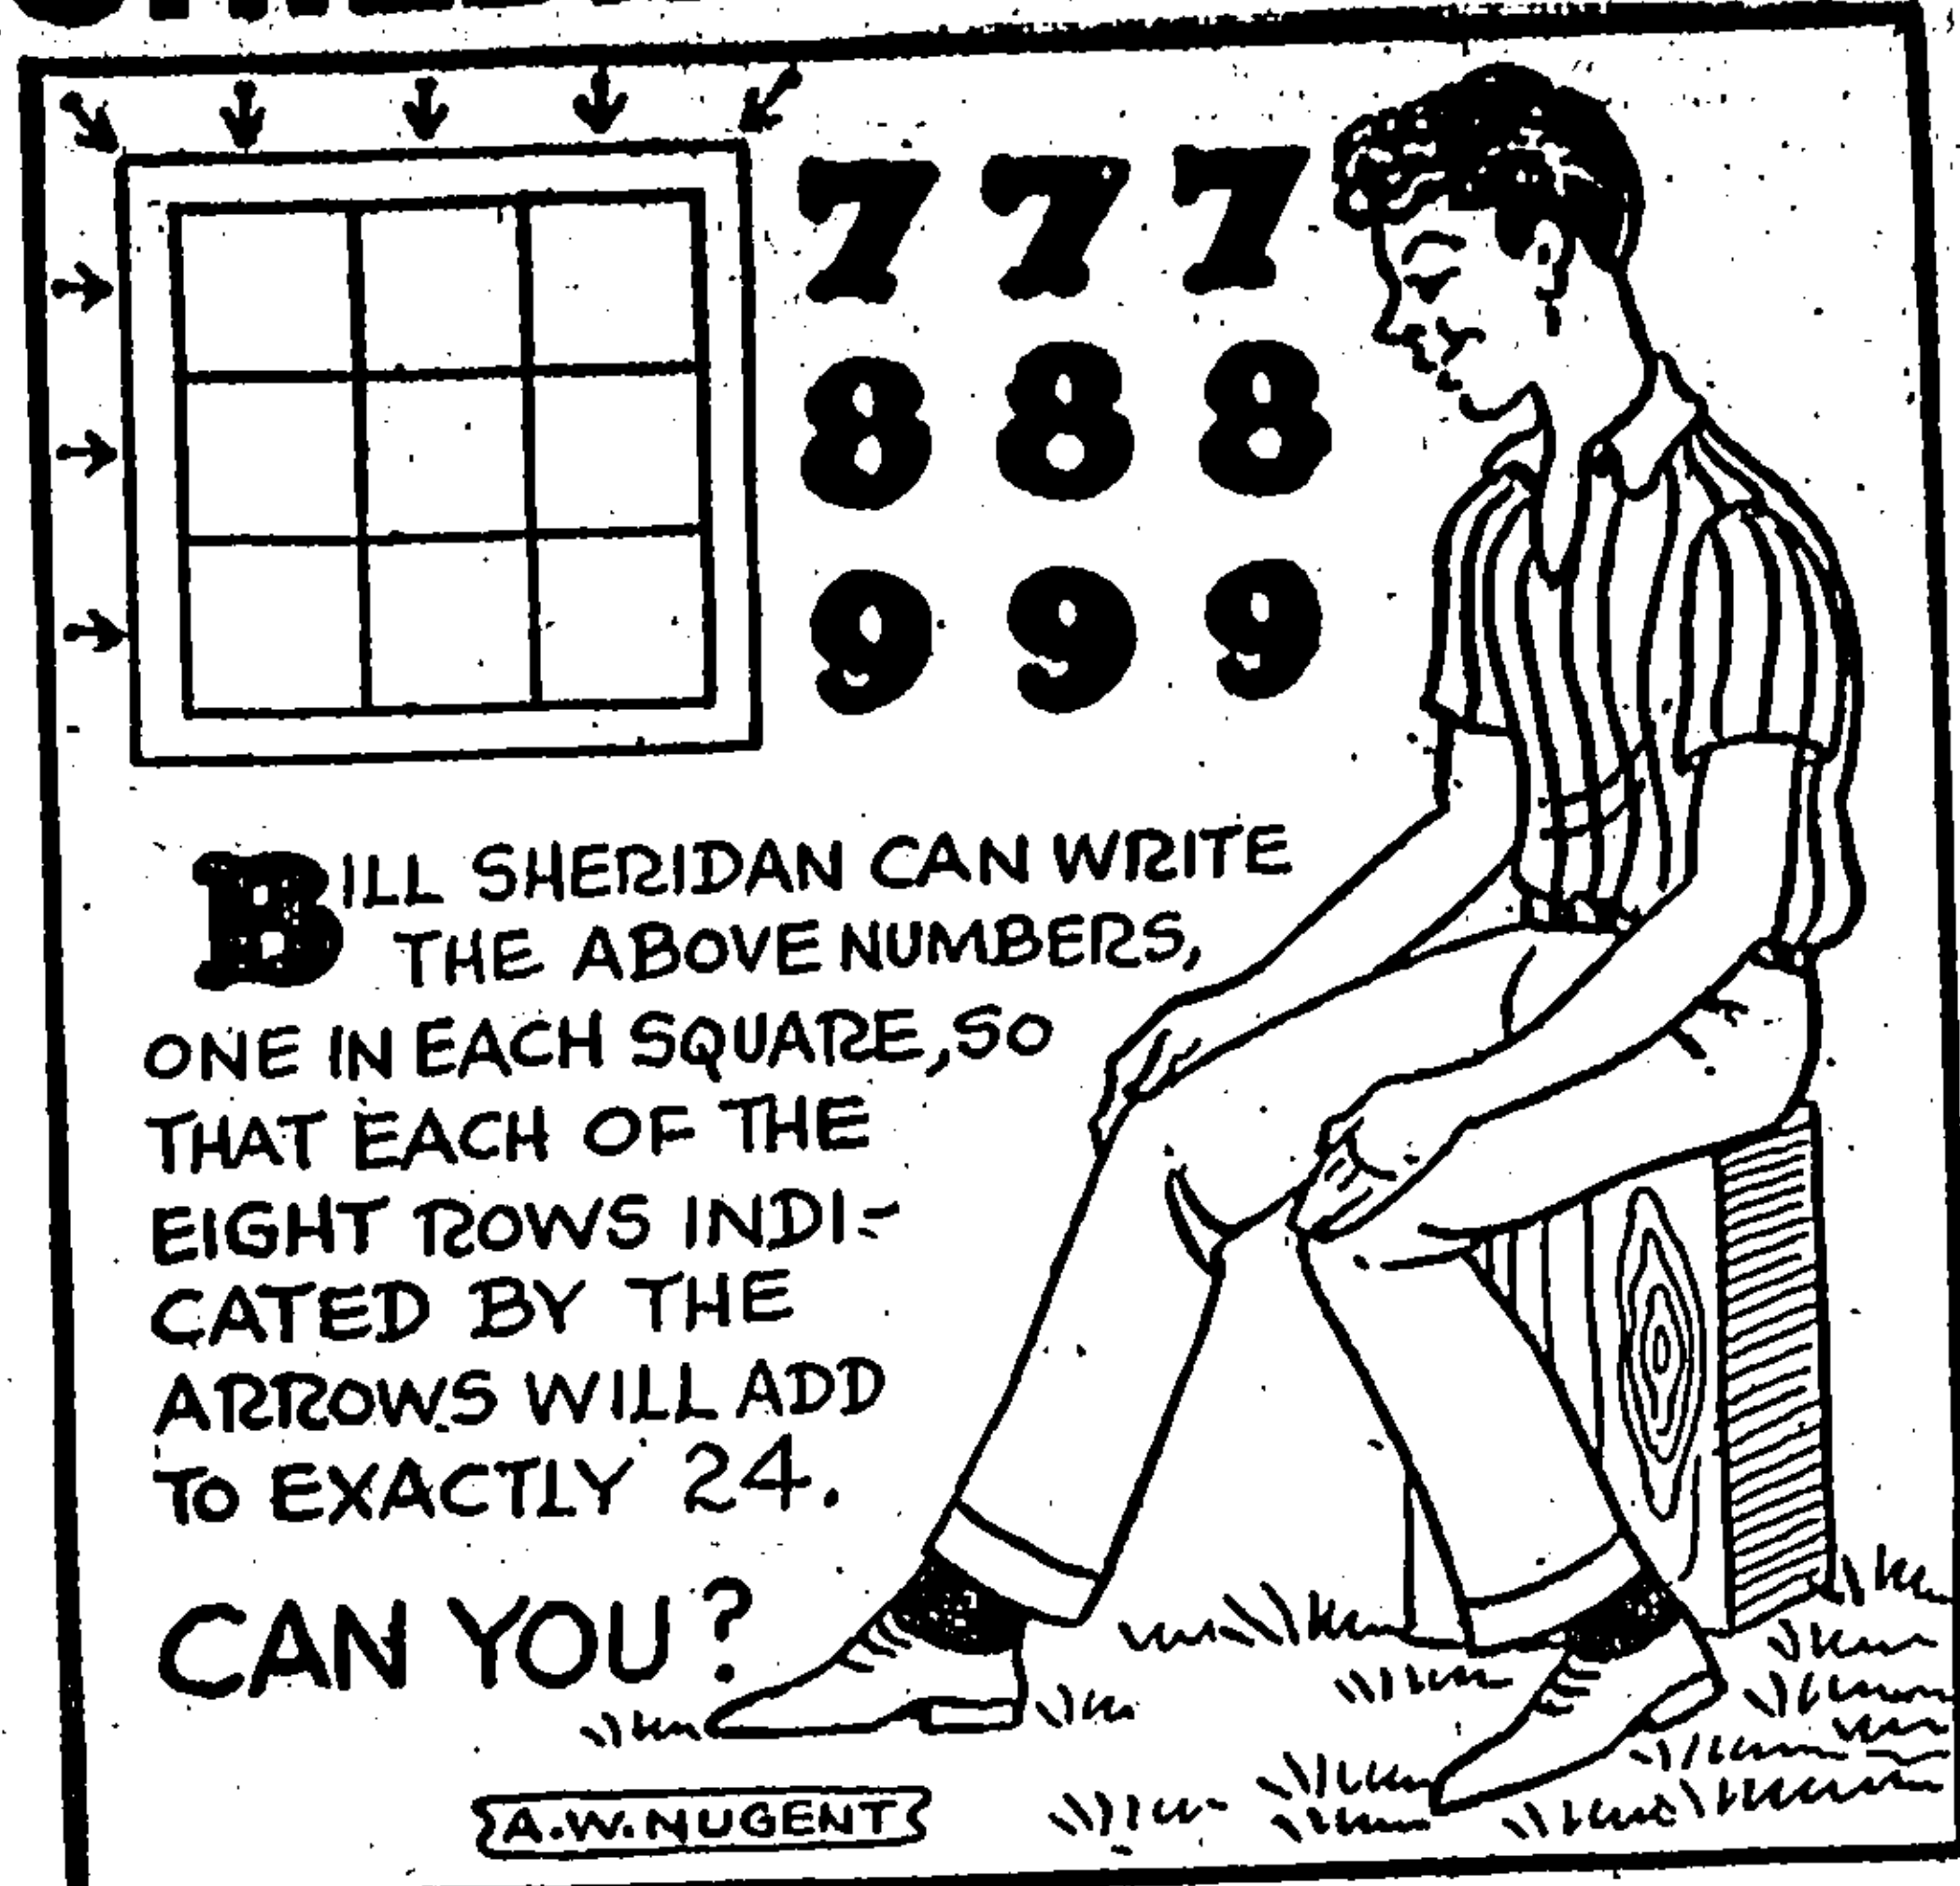

Bucharest, To-day.

Rumours of an impending change of government were circulating here yesterday.

It is said that Vajda Vojevoda, leader of Rumanians in Transylvania, will be asked to take over the premiership before December 1 at the latest, that is, before the twentieth anniversary of the union of Transylvania with old Rumania.—Trans-Ocean.

14 Dead In Belgian Air Crash

BERLIN, TO-DAY.

THE FOLLOWING EAGERLY-AWAITED PARTICULARS REGARDING THE TRAGIC AEROPLANE DISASTER THAT OCCURRED YESTERDAY AT LAKE MOEHNE, NEAR SOEST, WHEN THE BELGIAN CIVIL PLANE "OO-AGT," ON ITS WAY FROM BRUSSELS TO BERLIN CRASHED, CAUSING THE DEATHS OF 10 PASSENGERS AND FOUR MEMBERS OF THE CREW, ARE NOW FURNISHED BY GERMAN LUFTHANSA:

The machine itself which belonged to the Belgian Airways Company, Sabena, was a three-engined Italian Savoia airplane and left Brussels slightly behind time with only two passengers on board, namely, a German married couple.

In Duesseldorf, according to the time table, the rest of the passengers came on board including the managing director of the Rheinmetall Works, Herr Luther.

All those killed were of German nationality, while the crew of four, who also met death, consisted entirely of Belgians.

The disaster occurred 20 minutes after a start was made from Dueseldorf.

WINGS BREAK OFF

Inhabitants from the neighbourhood report that the machine crashed from among the clouds, which were moderately high, with both wings being already broken off.

Among the dead are two women and three children of three, 7 1/2 and 10 years, respectively. All three were killed with both parents, the family name being, Kappen.

The Belgian crew, all of whom were killed, consisted of four men,

The airplane crashed in a field, parts being scattered around for a distance of 300 metres.

A German commission of enquiry is already at the scene of disaster and a Belgian commission is on its way there.—Trans-Ocean.

National Guard Pays $530

DAY OF SUBSTANTIAL DIVIDENDS AND MANY UPSETS

V. V. NEEDA MOST SUCCESSFUL JOCKEY

BACKED by only 13 punters, the Novice rider Mr. Yeung Wing-kwan, provided the outstanding feature of the "Double Tenth" Race Meeting at the Valley yesterday, when he brought National Guard in first in the Fokien Plate to pay the record dividend of $530 for a $5 win bet, and $90.60 for a place bet!

Another fairly substantial dividend was paid out in the Canberra Handicap, when Centre Court (Mr. S. W. Tang) paid $205.20 for a win and $20 for a place bet, while the only other dividend of decent proportions occurred in the Kwangsi Handicap, when Red Feather, excellently ridden by Mr. Peter Y. T. Wei paid $56 for a win.

There was only one incident of note, Mr. C. F. Chiu falling off Dark Hazard almost in front of the grandstand in the very early stages of the Fokien Plate. He was uninjured.

Mr. V. V. Needa headed the list of most successful jockeys for the two days, having three firsts, three seconds and three thirds, and he was closely followed by Mr. Peter Y. T. Wei with three firsts, two seconds and one third.

The Double Tenth Plate, the main race of the programme provided a

"RAPIER" LEADS AGAIN

"Rapier", the "China Mail's" racing correspondent, selected three winners and three second placings yesterday, in addition to the fact that four OUTSIDER selections gained places. In addition, six other nominations also secured placings. No other European newspaper has as good a record. Follow his selections in the "China Mail".

totally unexpected upset when Mr. V. V. Needa on King's Warden beat Mr. C. Encarnacao on Cameronian, the latter being a hot favourite. King's Warden shot into an early lead after a lone getaway and led till the finishing post, Cameronian's spurt coming a trifle too late and he was beaten by two lengths.

Spoils were fairly evenly distributed among the owners, although Sir Vandeleur Grayburn heralded his return to the Colony with a win in the first race of the day when Elizabeth beat Just In Time with plenty in reserve.

COCHET'S TENNIS FARM

Paris, September 10.

Henri Cochet, the former world amateur lawn tennis champion, who has since turned professional, has retired to a farm at Bazoches, near Paris.

He intends to have tennis courts built there, and hopes to organise amateur championships and train young players. In the spring, according to the Paris "Soir," he may go to Russia.

"Unofficial and incorrect," was how Dr. H. G. Owen-Smith, Western Province and Springbok cricketer, described the report that he had been sounded as to his readiness to captain South Africa in the forthcoming series of Tests between South Africa and the M.C.C. "Even if that were the case," he added, "I would not be in a position to accept the captaincy." Principal reason would be his inability to obtain leave from medical work.

BRITISH BOXING IN CHAOS

Many Titles Vacant

BRITISH boxing is in a chaotic condition. There are as many vacant championships in British boxing as there are empty thrones in Europe.

After Benny Lynch had forfeited his title as world flyweight champion due to overweight, he was followed by Johnny McGrory, who lost his title for the same reason.

Tommy Farr, without even going on to the scales, lost his British and Empire titles, preferring the American dollar to the British "crowns."

Len Harvey is expected to meet the winner of the Phillips-Doyle match, to be held in London this month. In the meantime there are other heavyweight boxers who feel that Harvey is a "has been," and that they are entitled to a contest for the heavyweight title.

FIGHT CAPLAN

Benny Caplan, who was decisively beaten by McGrory, now becomes the main contender for the title vacated by McGrory. Any boxer who wants McGrory's title must fight Caplan. Peter Kane fights Jurich, with small Montana looking on. This fight will be for Lynch's title. Betting favours Kane, who has a better punch than Jurich, and is just as fast on his feet as his opponent.

It is hoped British boxing will soon be restored to some semblance of order.

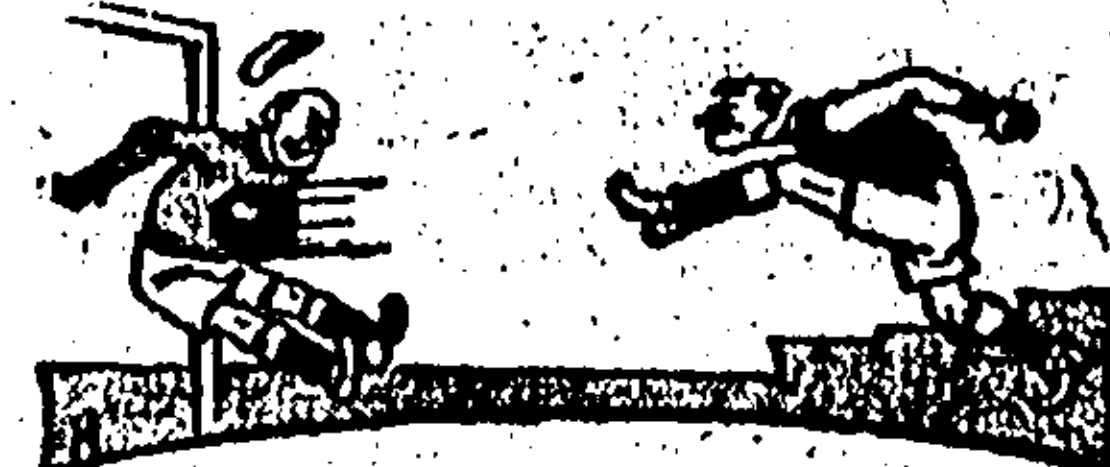

In an effort to clarify positions in British boxing, a country-wide discussion by leading judges and Press critics produced the following national ratings:—

HEAVYWEIGHTS: Len Harvey, Eddie Phillips, Jack Doyle, Larry Gains, James, Ben Foord.

CRUISERWEIGHTS: Len Harvey, Jock McAvoy, Jack Hyams, Eddie Pierce.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS: Jock McAvoy, Jack Hyams, Eddie Pierce, Ginger Sadd.

WELTERWEIGHTS: Jake Kilrain, Ernie Roderick, Harry Mizler, George Daly.

EVERTON LOSE AT LAST

A STRANGE COLLAPSE

HUDDERSFIELD'S TRIUMPH

(By AIR MAIL)

London, September 24.

HUDDERSFIELD* 3 EVERTON 0
An early attack by Huddersfield was held by Everton. Boyes pounced on a loose ball, but Hesford kicked over the bar. Everton's short quick passing troubled the Huddersfield defence. Once Price ran between the Everton backs, but Sagar held his shot. Young played soundly in defence for Huddersfield.

Promising moves between Lawton and Stevenson for Everton were checked by Young and Mountford. Beasley was the danger point for Huddersfield. Hinchliffe shot late, his effort being blocked by Cook. Huddersfield's long shots were harassing, but neither side had scored when the interval arrived.

Two goals up within six minutes of the resumption Huddersfield began to fight still more keenly. In each case Brown fed Hinchliffe, who scored both goals. Everton counter-attacked, but Stevenson and Bentham shot just outside.

Huddersfield not only missed another goal when Sagar was beaten, but off-side saved Everton on another occasion. Later, Lawton, Bentham, and Jones all tried hard for that elusive Everton goal, which never came, and so the visitors had to admit their first defeat of the season and lose the 100 per cent. record which they were the last club in any League to hold. Isaac scored Huddersfield's third goal four minutes before the end.

London, September 20.

ARSENAL* 0 ... ASTON VILLA 0

Excellent forward combination was a feature in a fast, vigorously contested game at Highbury. Arsenal were fortunate in the first minute when Martin missed badly following a good pass by Kerr, who showed great form at outside right. Smart work by Crayston, Kirchen, and Jones placed the Villa defence in difficulties on several occasions, though Biddlestone was rarely tested.

A feature of the game was the polished play of both defences, Joy for the Arsenal, and Callaghan and Allen for Villa, being outstanding. Despite their skilful work in midfield, neither set of forwards could create real scoring opportunities, and the only four shots which appeared likely to succeed were made by Kirchen, Iverson, Houghton, and Bryn Jones.

Arsenal opened in fine style following the change of ends, and Biddlestone saved from Drake and Cumner. Aston Villa replied with several good attacks, but the forwards unable to find a gap in a well-organised defence, tried several shots from long range which were rarely dangerous.

Neither side could gain the least advantage in stubbornly contested exchanges, and scoring opportunities were few and far between. Cumner spoilt a magnificent individual effort by shooting wide, while Massie ended a similar piece of work by testing Swindin severely. A draw proved a fitting result.

Many Rugby fans consider that the diving pass as used by Saxton, the All Black half, was modelled on that of D. Craven, Springbok half-back, who visited Australia and New Zealand last year. But that's wrong. Saxton has always used that form of passing ever since the time he played for Otago Boys' High School through club and inter-provincial football in New Zealand.

SOUTH CHINA WIN CHARITY SOCCER

BUT ASSOCIATION ELEVEN SHINE UNDER GREAT HANDICAP

ABSENTEES AND NON-APPEARANCE OF SELECTED RESERVES

(By "UBIQUE")

WITHOUT the services of four Middlesex players, the Hong Kong Football Association did extremely well to lose by only three goals against South China in their charity soccer game at Caroline Hill yesterday before a large crowd.

K. Forrow, S. Strange, A. F. Brittain and D. Leonard, the selected reserves did not turn up, and it was with some difficulty that a team was fielded.

When the Association team took the field one could not but feel sorry for the defence with V. White and T. Castilho, both forwards, as wing halves, and obviously included merely as stop gaps, but both gave exceptionally good performances in their unusual positions.

V. White had such a good hold on Yeung Shui-yick that this usually dangerous winger rarely sent over any centres.

Castilho, at right-half, had a harder task, opposed as he was to Lau Tau-man, but this diminutive player dominated his Chinese opponent.

Hui King-sing, as pivot, was a revelation. He shadowed Lee Wai-tong throughout the game and was safe in his tackling and sound in his clearances. He was the only half back to be of any assistance to his forwards.

The Saints' backs, L. Souza and Hussain, rose to great heights. Both gave of their best yesterday. Souza kept close to Fung King-cheong, who found his attentions most undesirable.

TOWER OF STRENGTH

Hussain was a tower of strength. Allotted the task of taking Lai Shui-wing, he accomplished it well and still found time to pay some heed to Lee Wai-tong. His heading was brilliant and he relieved many a dangerous situation by timely interceptions.

U. B. Souza, playing in his first representative game, started shakily but warmed up later and dealt with some hard drives. Slow in his movements he countered this by sound positioning and anticipation.

Combination was lacking among the forwards.

Blake assumed a roving commission. He put in much hard work and was continually assisting his halves, but better use could have been made with the ball.

Suen was the outstanding forward. He was well marked by Leung Wing-chui, however, and only once was he given a chance.

Hau Ching-to was starved throughout the game. Munro, on the right-wing, found Lee Ting-sang hard to beat, but did well.

WENT NEAR

Fowler, at centre forward, did not receive the passes he was accustomed to. He went near with a header in the first-half and had bad luck with another in the closing stages.

Rarely have the Chinese forwards been so subdued, even the presence of Lee Wai-tong did not liven them up. They were seen in some neat movements, but their finishing was faulty.

The strength of the Chinese team lay in their intermediate line, where Leung Wing-chui, as pivot, shone. Having the full measure of the opposing attack they were able to ply their own forwards with good passes.

Mak Shui-hon and Lee Ting-sang were faster than the Association forwards and both cleared well.

Lai Shui-wing opened the scoring for the Chinese in the first half and Fung and Lee Wai-tong scored in the second period.

South African heavyweight, Ben Ford, partly atoned for his recent defeat by Eddie Phillips by outpointing Jimmy Wilde, heavyweight champion of Wales, over 12 rounds. In a hard fight, Ford showed better ringcraft than his opponent, who tried to land his devastating right swing throughout the contest without success.

SELF-CONTROL

The atmosphere was tense. Both sides were vulnerable; East and West had a part score of 60, and West had opened in first position with a bid of one diamond. North surveyed his hand. It was fairly good, but most of his strength was concentrated in his opponents' bid—hence the best thing to do was to pass and await developments. East now responded with one no-trump. Under ordinary circumstances East would have bid a spade, but one no-trump was a game-going declaration and he fervently hoped that his opponents would interject a defensive bid. South and West passed, and it was again up to North. He was sure his opponents could make their contract, but perhaps he could "boost" them to a higher and un-makable contract. North knew that he might be putting his head in a noose, but he just didn't have the self-control to sit there quietly while his opponents romped off with the rubber. He doubled and East, knowing the trap was sprung, quickly doubled forth a redouble. South had two clubs. West promptly doubled (this was easily the best contract); whereupon South then passed. West then doubled again. West again doubled and there being no place else to go, that became the final contract.

West opened a diamond and Declarer, endeavouring to make the best of a bad situation, won with the Queen, cashed the Ace, then ruffed a diamond, East discarding a club. Entering dummy with the Ace of clubs, Declarer attempted to trump another diamond. But East now led a trump and West, after winning, underled his Ace of spades. Another heart lead through Declarer picked up the remaining trumps, and the defence took the rest of the tricks. The contract was set 1100 (almost twice the value of rubber) owing to North's lack of self-control. (Copyright, By The Four Aces).

Both before and after the birth of her children, a mother needs plenty of simple, easily digested nourishment to meet the extra demands made upon her system.

Doctors and nurses know that Horlicks is an ideal food for both expectant and nursing mothers. Not only is it extremely palatable and easy to take, but it promotes sound sleep and prevents morning sickness.

Horlicks, moreover, provides the extra nourishment nursing mothers need. It is invaluable where the digestive powers are weak, and tends to prevent constipation. Get Horlicks to-day.

In these difficult times of anxiety and worry, the task of carrying on and doing work which must be done is a doubly difficult one which must tend to exhaust one's nervous energy.

Horlicks builds up strength, vitality and prevents that listlessness and tiredness caused by constant nervous strain. H. M. Hodges, 406-408 Asia Life Building, Queen's Road, Hong Kong.
